DETAINED.—County Clerk Ed. D. Patton entertained the members of the Court at a dinner at his home in Paris, on New Year's day. There is more popular official in the county than Mr. Patton and he will grow gray owing to his office.

ARRESTED.—Will Mosely, (color-d), of Versailles, has been arrested for the murder of J. N. Hawkins, of Lexington, on a confession and implicates Axline, of Nicholasville, and Jim McLe, of Paris, both white. Mosely's pistol found, belonged to him.

BANK STATEMENTS.—In another column will be found the semi-annual statement of the Bourbon Bank, the Agricultural Bank and the Deposit Bank, which makes a good showing for institutions. The report of Geo. Under & Co's Bank will appear in next issue.

THE NEW YEAR.—On Tuesday night several church bells in this city rang out the old, and the new year in, and yard engines at the depot joined in a long and continuous "whistle." The night was a very quiet one and the year slipped out of existence in the same way as all others.

GOOD WORK.—Don't forget that you can get anything you want printed at the BOURBON NEWS office. Bill Heads, Order Heads, Statements, Envelopes, Posters, Pamphlets, Visiting Cards, Programs, Funeral Notices, &c. Leave orders with THE NEWS for anything you want in this line and you will be served with neatness, promptness and dispatch. Phone 124.

BEGINNING.—THE BOURBON NEWS starts off with the new year with four new subscribers, which were added since the last issue, with little aid on our part. The people know something when they see it and are taking hold. If you want to keep up the times, subscribe for this paper. If you don't see it in the News, because it didn't happen.

RIGHTENED.—On Wednesday night, Miss Lillie Daniels and Etta Quisenberry went home and discovered that a burglar had entered the house, and they at once concluded that the place was being robbed. They summoned the police and an investigation proved that the burglar was none other than Quisenberry, who had entered the house without their knowledge, and was ready to retire.

MOST POPULAR YOUNG LADY.

A Chance For Her and Her Friends to Witness "King Dodo."

The News Offers a Box Party to the Popular Comic Opera Success, to the Young Lady Winning the Contest.

THE BOURBON NEWS offers a box, seating four persons, at the performance of the great comic opera success, "King Dodo," at the Grand Opera House in this city on January 31st, to the most popular young lady in Bourbon County. The contest is to be decided by a vote of the readers of the NEWS, in conjunction with the patrons of the Opera House. From this issue up to and including Tuesday, January 21st, in each issue of the NEWS will be printed the coupon below. All you have to do is to cut out the coupon, write the name of the young lady whom you think is the most popular in Bourbon County, and either mail it or leave it at this office.

At each performance given at the Opera House between now and the 31st every purchaser of a ticket will be given a coupon entitling him or her to a vote. This is a favor well worth trying for, for your favorite lady friend. The performance of "King Dodo" will without doubt be the society event of the season, and the privilege of giving a party to her friends will be a pleasure which any young lady will appreciate highly. The winner will be announced on Tuesday, January 21st. Cut out the following coupon, fill in the blank, and either leave it at the NEWS office or send by mail:

CHURCH CHIMES.

Only two meetings will be held next week in observing the program for the "week of prayer." The first one will be conducted in the Baptist church on Monday evening and the second in the First Presbyterian church on Friday evening.

These meetings will be at 7 o'clock and be conducted by the pastors of the city. On Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, morning, afternoon and evening meetings will be held in the Methodist church, in connection with the Mid-Winter Missionary rally of the Kentucky Conference.

The regular program for the "week of prayer" has been confined to Monday and Friday nights, on account of this missionary rally appointed for the Methodist church of Paris.

A New Year's Reception.

Misses Sallie Joe Hedges, Lizette Dickson, Jessie Turney and Gertrude Renick kept open house to their friends at the home of Miss Renick, on New Year's afternoon and evening.

The guests were received in the hall by Mrs. Thomas Fisher, after which they were ushered into the parlor to meet those in the receiving line, namely: Misses Estis, and Lizzie Mannen Turney.

The guests were invited to a room where pineapple and orange punch was served. The punch table was presided over by Misses Nannie Wilson and Louise Parrish.

The home of Miss Renick was profusely decorated with foliage plants. Sweet strains of music from a mandolin in the background, lent enchantment to the scene.
